Admits Murdering Kettlehutt

On Saturday fourteen year old Ideal Phisen, who was held for the slaying William Kettlehutt, confessed to the premeditated murder of his employer, in Lynn township, Aug. 19.

The boy says he wanted Kettlehutt's farm, his hay and his horse and buggy, so he killed him to get it. Then he intended to sell the hay, give the farm to his father and keep the horse and carriage. He saw the gun in the stable and found a shell on the shelf. Loading the gun he walked around the barn to a shed on one side. Creeping along the side of the shed he saw Kettlehutt standing in the doorway. He was looking away from the boy. At a distance of 14 feet, Ideal raised the gun, took careful aim and fired. The charge struck his victim in the neck, tore a gaping hole and, officials believe caused instant death.

Then the little fellow hitched up the coveted horse and drove to his home, a short distance away. He told his parents what he had done and was so badly frightened when his mother told him he would be hanged that he hurried back and hid the body under some loose hay on the floor. He also hid the gun.

The little fellow apparently does not realize the seriousness of his crime, and since he has confessed, talks freely about the crime.

Primary Fund Apportioned

St. Clair county has received from the state treasury primary school money to the amount of $116,337.60. This is apportioned to the different districts throughout the county and county treasurer Beach is now busy sending it out. The total number of school children in the county is 16,158, and the rate per capita is $7.20. Below are the amounts sent to each township and city:

Berlin, $2,506.60; Brockway, $5,047.20; Burtchville, $928; China, $2,620.80; Clay, $5,227.20; Clyde, $1,425.60; Emmett, $1,908.00; Fort Gratiot, $1,808.20; Columbus, $1,746; Casco, $2,572.80; Ira, $2,290.40; Kenosha, $2,397.60; Kimball, $2,023.20; Lynn, $1,720.80; Mussey, $3,254.40; Port Huron township, $4,680; Riley, $2,131.40; St. Clair, $2,829.60; Wales, $2,412; Port Huron city, $46,800; Marine City, $8,676.20; St. Clair city, $5,104.80; Yale has 408 children in the school census and receives $2,900 from the amount apportioned Brockway township.

Your Newspaper

Your local newspaper is in no sense a special child of charity. It earns every dollar it receives and is second to no enterprise in contributing to the up-building and betterment of the town and community. Its patrons reap far more benefits from its pages than its publisher and in calling for the support of the community it asks no more than what in all fairness belongs to it. Patronize your home paper as you would any other enterprise, as a matter of business, because it directly or indirectly helps you, and not as a matter of charity.—C. E. Miller in Apache (Okla.) Review.

CLIPPINGS

Taken From The Capac Journal of August 24th

Married, at the Baptist parsonage on Thursday, August 16, at 3 p. m., Miss Rose Ann Brough to Mr. J. R. Henry, both of Lynn township. They were attended by Mr. Robert Brough and Miss Verna Henry.

Wm. Roy and daughter Phebe spent the last week end here with S. Eastman and family and other friends. Mr. Roy is 75 years of age, but he seemed as lively and as young looking as he did 35 or 40 years ago when he was the Capac drayman. Miss Roy was also looking well, and almost as young as when she was a school girl and teacher in Capac. She is a teacher in Yale schools.

A very pleasant surprise was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris A. Stevens at their home near Yale, on Sunday, August 12. It was Mr. S.'s 64th birthday anniversary. As he and his good wife were preparing to dine on a wee roast pig, a party of some 64 of his relatives and friends, with well filled baskets, autoed in and took possession. As "Shady Nook Farm" is an ideal place for a picnic, tables were erected on the lawn and a bountiful repast was enjoyed by all. Many fine presents were received. Chris says that he hopes that they will not forget his birthdays in the future and that they will come often.

"A Daughter of the Gods."

Enchanting is one of the words to qualify "A Daughter of the Gods," William Fox's $1,000,000 film spectacle, the attraction booked at The Princess Theatre for matinee and night performances Tuesday, Sept. 4. Massive in its magnificence, luxurious in its wealth of scenic investiture and costuming, this spectacle is the last word in motion picture classics. As fast as the eye is fed with the kaleidoscopic changes of locale and incidents "the spectator's brain reels with enthusiastic admiration and childish wonder," says one critic describing the story, which is filled with heart throbs, human emotions and nerve testing conditions all harmonized in an enduring spell of beauty.

"So far as feminine physical perfection is concerned," comments Mary Edith Butler, author of "The Rose Behind the Wall," "Annette in very truth is a daughter of the gods, so perfect in flesh and blood composition, so instinctively graceful, that she fills the eye like an inspired dream of the Greek masters." The scenes in which she takes part, dream-stuff and golden poetry, one must carry ever after for mental retrospection whenever the subject of motion pictures is suggested.

Fantastic is the story, at times, to the point of real childhood belief, and yet it entrances and grips the spectator with its sheer realism.

Big Fire Near Emmett

Emmett Mich., Aug. 28—Loss estimated at from $7,000 to $10,000 was suffered by Peter Kavanagh, a farmer living near Emmett, when fire last night destroyed his house and barn, together with his crops, five horses, three cows, pigs, chickens, 100 swarms of bees, and his household furniture. The barn caught fire first, supposedly from one bolt of lightning which flashed through the sky shortly after ten o'clock.

Members of the family heard a crash, but until the barn burst in flames were not aware the bolt had found a mark. Because of the lateness of the hour few of the neighbors responded to fight the flames, and the family was compelled to stand by and watch their home leveled to the ground. Mr. Kavanagh had $2,000 insurance on his property.

Family Gathering

Members of the Adams families, to the number of twenty-six, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Adams, southwest of Yale, on Sunday, August 26, and enjoyed a splendid social time together.

The weather was fine, and a picnic dinner was served out-of-doors. The following persons were present:—Mrs. Farrand Ballentine and son, Harry Adams, of Port Huron; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Adams and family, of Capac; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brand, of Cleveland, Ohio; James Adams, Charles Adams, Joe Edgerton and families and Mrs. Helen Reid, all of Yale.

Opening of New Opera House

Manager Barr announces Monday night next, Sept. 3, as the opening date for his New Opera House, and for the entire week there will be something doing every evening for the people of Yale and vicinity.

In a conversation with Mr. Barr he informs us that he is going to give our citizens a season of the best attractions on the road, and that he will allow nothing but first-class troupes the use of his auditorium.

With these facts in mind he has booked the popular Henderson Stock Company for a week's engagement, beginning next Monday evening.

This company is playing to capacity houses in Brown City this week, and the people of our sister city have nothing but words of praise for the troupe which Mr. Henderson is presenting this year. They appear in a repertoire of high class comedies and dramas.

For opening night they will present "The Girl Who Never Had a Chance." There will be a different play each evening, and our people have an opportunity to attend some of the best plays of the day.

This popular amusement company has made arrangements with the leading merchants of the city whereby you can secure free tickets. Ask the merchants about them.

It has been a long time since Yale has had anything in the theatrical line, and now that we have an opportunity to see the best there is in this line, let there be a good attendance at each performance next week, and thus encourage Mr. Barr in his endeavor to give us something worth while.

Yale Roll of Honor.

Lieut. Frank W. Sheehy left for Battle Creek Monday morning. The best of good wishes goes with him through his army life.

Many of the friends of Dr. Wm. G. Wight banqueted him at the New Auditorium Tuesday night in honor of his leaving for Battle Creek to enter upon his duties as captain of the medical corps. A pot-luck supper was served and the evening was pleasantly spent, all wishing the Dr. a successful army life, no harm may befall him, and when the war is over a safe return to his home here.

Lieut. Harry B. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren B. Campbell, Greenwood township, has been notified to report at El Paso, Tex. Harry was recently given an appointment at Fort Sheridan of Second Lieutenant of the regular army, and has been assigned to the 15th Artillery corps. He is 25 years of age, a graduate of Yale High School and M. A. C. The Expositor always takes pleasure in making mention of our boys who make good.
